

BlocBuilder Speaker Agreement Form

Please read, agree to, and sign below.

As an AgencyBloc BlocBuilder speaker, I:

1. agree to travel to Fort Lauderdale, Florida, for the in-person BlocBuilder on April 7-9, 2026, should I be chosen as an in-person speaker.
2. will present and discuss the planned session, panel, or roundtable discussion.
3. understand that, prior to finalizing the presentation title and description, I must disclose any proprietary interest I have in any product or service discussed during my presentation(s).
4. agree to keep my presentation educational in nature and not be presented as a sales pitch. I also understand I can include my logo/company's logo on the introduction and ending slides of the presentation. Lastly, I understand that I must provide a contact slide so attendees can contact me for more information.
5. agree to actively participate and answer questions attendees have about my presentation. This includes utilizing the event software and looking for any questions about my presentation. This may also involve contacting attendees post-presentation to answer detailed or specific questions that pertain to that attendee only.
6. grant permission to AgencyBloc to make my slides and handouts accessible to all BlocBuilder registrants.
7. grant permission to AgencyBloc to use my photo, bio, presentation title, presentation description, and BlocBuilder presentation recording in any marketing materials and promotional items for the BlocBuilder event, current or future. As the author of the content within the presentation, I maintain ownership of that original material.

8. understand and will abide by AgencyBloc's requirement that, as a member of its BlocBuilder event, I am expected to maintain a high standard of professionalism and that I shall not discriminate or make discriminatory remarks, written or otherwise, based on ethnicity, gender, race, age, lifestyle, sexual orientation, form of worship, and/or a person's physical or mental challenges.
9. agree to be present and checked in 30 minutes before the start of my presentation. I will be ready for my presentation (either in the presentation room or outside the door) at least 15 minutes before the start of my session, panel, or roundtable.
10. agree to participate in one virtual practice run of my session prior to the in-person event in Fort Lauderdale.
